

House, the majority in the Senate, believing that there would have been a terrible problem if it wasn't there.

I do want to reiterate that I am now pleased, as Chairman of the Financial Services Committee, that there is this interest on the Republican side in restricting compensation. It has not previously been a strong part of their argument.

However, we will return to the subject of this resolution. The resolution isn't binding, but it is a forerunner of what will be binding.

The Committee on Financial Services will vote next week on binding legislation, and it will bring it to the floor the week after, which will embody much of this, and it will include an effort to deal with this retroactively. There will be legal questions raised, but the fact is that we will have binding legislation to embody this.

This is an important statement. I would say this in closing, Mr. Speaker. We have people now at AIG deciding whether or not they are going to give their money back. The more they give back to us, the better we will be. It won't be totally conclusive.

But to defeat this resolution because it says nice things about President Obama would be a grave error.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I voted in favor of this resolution because no company should pay large bonuses to employees after receiving taxpayer funds under the Troubled Assets Relief Program. I agreed to the stated "sense of Congress" that the President is appropriately exercising all powers available to him because I have no reason to conclude otherwise. But I acknowledge the possibility that the President may not be doing all he can to recover the AIG bonuses. No Representative can know everything an Administration is doing so it is therefore possible that more can be done. If more can be done, it should be done.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. FRANK) that the House suspend the rules and agree to the concurrent resolution, H. Con. Res. 76.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. GARRETT of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.
